Questions and Answers

1. To ask a question:

- All members can see your question.
- Every member can reply to your question.
- Only you can see replies to your question.

- Fill your question in the “Title”. If you have additional notes, pictures or files you would like to add, you can use the horizontal menu under “Title”.

- Choose the appropriate category or “general student question” if your question does not fit any other category.

- You can ignore “Tag”.

- Submit your question.
2. Staff and member questions:

   a. You can search a specific question by typing into the free search bar at the top and clicking the magnifying glass icon.

   b. You can filter questions by chapter or author.
   c. A question has a status, either
      1. open – you can still resolve this question and submit your answer,
      2. closed – you cannot submit more answers, or
3. resolved – The question has been resolved by the best answer, and you can still submit yours.

d. You can see the user that asked the question next to its status.

e. You can answer a question and click ‘submit’:

- The question number is \( x.y \) means question \( y \) in chapter \( x \) according to the book.
• Only you and the staff can see your answer after the submission.
• You can add pictures, link or files.
• Staff can replay to your answer and correct it if needed.
• Staff can choose the best answer.
• The best answer will be checked – in such a case you a ‘check’ symbol will appear next to the question item.
enjoy!
